THE BENEFITS OF TEAM BUILDING

- Team building helps in building rapport between team members
- Effective team building helps in improving productivity, retention, engagement and morale.
- A successful and coherent company culture is built through team building intervention
- Creates collaboration and trust between employees and departments
- It encourages creativity and improved communication

1. EXECUTIVE TEAM BUILDING SESSION

Great teamwork is inspired from the top. A well oiled Executive team sets the tone for all the other organizational layers and departments. The Executive Team Building Session is normally run alongside the Strategy Facilitation to ensure that the rightful momentum is set from the onset. We are deeply convicted that a smooth-functioning executive and senior management teams, who collaborate cleverly over planning strategic change directions, co-ordinate efforts to work on key initiatives and genuinely 'think together' about common challenges confronting their organisation, are essential to achieve outcomes that are integrated and aligned.

We run this executive team-building session to assist senior teams work more coherently and effectively together with a common agenda to drive the entity forward.

The focus of the session includes:

- Purpose and direction: what value do we add?
- Clarifying our team performance challenges
- Measuring our strategic team effectiveness
- Collaboration: how well do we really function?
- Cohesion: identifying our interdependencies
- Commitment, competition, conflicts of interest
- Conceptual, strategic and systemic thinking
- Constructive conversations & deep dialogue
- Rapport: building connections with each other
- Our expectations & assumptions of each other
- Emotionally intelligent executive team
- Decision-making patterns & team tendencies
- Confronting, challenging & questioning
- Holding each other accountable & feedback
- Executive team improvement action plans

2. TEAMWORKING AND TEAMBUILDING SESSION

As a way of fostering strong relationships and cohesion that drives productivity, we run this team working session meant at igniting oneness towards excellence. Our mandate is to facilitate an event that promotes long term behavioural change. We take the team members through a process where people connect and see each other in the rightful light without a sense of suspicion but with a focus on the common assignment.

Our standard team-working and team building session addresses the following amongst other things.

- Teambuilding: the art of working better together
- Foundations for effective teams
- Team development stages
- Team failure and success factors
- Forming great teams
- Communication, cohesion and collaboration
- Exploring team leadership and followership
- Expectations of me, others, and this team
- Great teams operating principles
- Action planning: ways to work better together

3. TEAM BUILDING FOR LEADERS

It is always said that it rises and falls on leadership. Our passion lies in developing leaders on all fronts. This includes a powerful team of leaders. If all leaders within the establishment are driven by oneness, there is no challenge which cannot be surmounted. The role of a leader in an effective or high performance team is more like that of a facilitator. The leader's primary task is to bring out the best in each team member so that collectively the team can leverage on each member's strength. We bring our experience with leaders at all levels alongside team building expertise to build an undefeatable force in the top team.

This programme touches on the power of a team especially in the strategic, leadership or management with respect to the following;

- Shared purpose
- Shared goals
- Increasing team performance
- Improving the quality of delivery
- Sound communication between team members
- Motivation
- Team leadership
- Integrity and character building for teams
- The nature and benefits of high performing teams; roles, culture & problem solving
- How great teams work together
